

Accreditation of Management System Certification

UKAS is recognised by the Secretary of State for Business, Innovation and Skills, as the sole national body for the activities that are listed in Appendices 1 and 2 of the Memorandum of Understanding between the Department for Business, Innovation and Skills (BIS) and UKAS.

Principles for accepting standards or other normative documents for the purpose of certification of management systems under UKAS accreditation have been developed and agreed with stakeholders, including BIS, in the UKAS Policy Advisory Committee.

Only the following management system standards/normative documents are covered under UKAS accreditation:
